STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

With a view to consolidate the laws relating to the Food in the country and for laying down science based standards for articles of food and to regulate their manufacture, storage, distribution, sale and import, to ensure availability of safe and wholesome food for human consumption and for that purpose to establish the Food Safety and Standards Authority of India, Parliament enacted the Food Safety and Standards Act, 2006 (FSS Act).

2. Sub-section (4) of section 5 of the said FSS Act empowers the Central Government to appoint the Chairperson and Members, other than ex officio Members, of the Food Authority on the recommendations of the Selection Committee. Sub-section (5) of section 5 of the FSS Act prohibits holding of any other office by the Chairperson and Members of the Food Authority. This provision led to difficulties in constituting the Food Authority.

3. The Central Government was of the view that the Members of the Food Authority may also be appointed on part-time basis since it may not be possible to appoint eminent persons as Members of the Food Authority for the reason that they would be holding some other office or appointment in some industry/organisation which they represent. Therefore, section 5 of FSS Act has been amended. Section 7(1) of the FSS Act was also amended to take out the Members from the purview of the provisions which restrict the appointment of the Members to a maximum of 62 years of age.

4. As Parliament was not in session and the circumstances existed which rendered it necessary to promulgate the Food Safety and Standards (Amendment) Ordinance, 2008 on 7th February, 2008 so as to expedite the selection and appointment of Chairperson and Members of the Food Authority.

5. The Food Safety and Standards (Amendment) Bill, 2008 seeks to replace the Food Safety and Standards (Amendment) Ordinance, 2008.
